

Russian Language, Literature, and Culture

Minor

The Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures offers a minor in Russian Language, Literature, and Culture. There is no major in Russian Language, Literature, and Culture. Students desiring to major in Russian language, literature, or culture should choose the appropriate major track offered in the Slavic Languages and Literatures major (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2014-15/undergraduate/degree-programs/slavic-languages-literatures>).

Heritage Speakers of Russian

Heritage speakers include those who grew up in Russian speaking families but without a standard Russian language educational background. Heritage speakers may select any major or minor track offered by the Department except the minor in Russian language. The unit requirements are the same for all majors and minors. However, the balance between courses approved for and taken in language and literature/culture may change depending on each student's language proficiency. The choice of specific courses in language and literature/culture for any respective major or minor track will be determined on an individual basis by the Heritage Program Advisor, Anna Muza, amuza@berkeley.edu. Before enrolling in language courses and declaring a major or minor, heritage speakers are required to take a proficiency/placement test.

Declaring the Minor

Students considering a minor track involving language requirements must see the major adviser early on to have their status as a heritage or native speaker determined, to be referred for language placement as needed, and to have their major study list plan approved. The paperwork for the minor, called an L&S Confirmation of Minor form, is completed with the Major Adviser the semester in which the student will earn his/her degree and no later than the last two weeks of classes in the student's final semester. Students are required to bring a Bear Facts copy of their transcript when they meet with the major adviser to finalize their minor. Final approval for a minor rests with the major adviser.

Other Majors and Minors offered by the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures

Czech, Polish, or Bosnian/Croatian/Serbian (BCS) Language and Literature (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2014-15/undergraduate/degree-programs/czech-polish-bosnian-croatian-serbian-language-literature>) (Minor Only)

Russian Language (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2014-15/undergraduate/degree-programs/russian-language>) (Minor only)

Russian Literature (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2014-15/undergraduate/degree-programs/russian-literature>) (Minor only)

Slavic Languages and Literatures (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2014-15/undergraduate/degree-programs/slavic-languages-literatures>) (Major only)

Students who have a strong interest in an area of study outside their major often decide to complete a minor program. These programs have set requirements and are noted officially on the transcript in the memoranda section, but they are not noted on diplomas.

General Guidelines

1. All courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements below must be taken for graded credit.
2. A minimum of three of the upper-division courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements must be completed at UC Berkeley.
3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 is required for courses used to fulfill the minor requirements.
4. Courses used to fulfill the minor requirements may be applied toward the Seven-Course Breadth Requirement, for Letters and Science students.
5. No more than one upper-division course may be used to simultaneously fulfill requirements for a student's major and minor programs.
6. All minor requirements must be completed prior to the last day of finals during the semester in which the student plans to graduate. Students who cannot finish all courses required for the minor by that time should see a College of Letters and Science adviser.
7. All minor requirements must be completed within the unit ceiling. (For further information regarding the unit ceiling, please see the College Requirements tab.)
