

Japanese Studies

Minor

The Group in Asian Studies offers a minor in Japanese Studies. This minor program gives students an introduction to the study of one region of Asia through social science and humanities courses. Students who wish to pursue a major program in Japanese Studies should refer to the major program in Asian Studies: Japan (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2016-17/undergraduate/degree-programs/asian-studies-japan>), in this Guide.

Declaring the Minor

Students must see the undergraduate major adviser in 101 Stephens Hall to fill out an Intent to Declare Minor form. It is recommended that students do this either before or, at most, shortly after they decide to pursue a minor.

Other Majors and Minors Offered by the Group in Asian Studies

Requirements

Upper Division

Select FIVE upper division courses focusing on Japan:

50% or more of each course's content must deal with Japan, in order to fulfill the minor requirements.

Only 2 language and literature courses (e.g., the Japanese 100 series) may count toward the five courses.

2 of the 5 courses can be taken as part of an approved study abroad plan. Courses must be selected in advance by consulting with the minor adviser.

There are no language requirements for this minor.
