

Hispanic Languages, Linguistics, and Bilingualism

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

The sequence of undergraduate programs of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese is designed to lead from the acquisition of competence in written and spoken Spanish or Portuguese, through an acquaintance with the structure and history of one or both of these languages and a critical understanding of the development and achievements of their literatures in the Old World and in the New, to training in advanced study and independent research. The department's policy is to maintain a balanced strength between language and literature and between Peninsular and Latin American facets of a unified field.

This track is recommended for students interested in the linguistic structure of Spanish and/or Portuguese, bilingualism in society, and/or career in K-12 foreign language teaching, as well as for future graduate students in (Hispanic) Linguistics.

Declaring the Major

Students can receive pre-major advising at any time, from the staff undergraduate adviser. Students should declare the major when they have completed SPANISH 25, which must be taken for a letter grade.

Honors Program

Students are eligible to do honors work within the Department of Spanish and Portuguese if they have completed at least two semesters of work at Berkeley with an overall grade-point average of 3.3 and a grade-point average of at least 3.6 in those courses taken within the major. Students must complete two honors courses, H195A (1.5 units) and H195B (1.5 units), in two successive semesters, and will write a thesis under the supervision of an appropriate departmental faculty member over the course of two successive semesters. A letter grade, reflecting progress, will be given after the first semester. H195A/B will not count toward the required upper division work in the major. Before the semester in which the student intends to begin the honors program, they should speak with the staff undergraduate adviser to verify eligibility for honors work and to discuss the process.

Minor Program

The department offers a minor in Hispanic Languages, Linguistics, and Bilingualism. For further information on minor requirements, please see the Minor Requirements tab on this page.

No formal declaration of enrollment in the minor program is required. Upon completion of the program, however, students must file with the undergraduate adviser of the department the Petition for Confirmation of the Minor Completion form (<http://ls-advise.berkeley.edu/fp/00minor.pdf>). For further information on declaring the minor, please see the department's website. (<http://spanish-portuguese.berkeley.edu/undergraduate/the-minor>)

Other Majors and Minors Offered by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Latin American Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2017-18/undergraduate/degree-programs/latin-american-literatures>) (Major only)

The Languages, Literatures, and Cultures of the Portuguese-Speaking World (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2017-18/undergraduate/degree-programs/luso-brazilian-language-literature>) (Major and Minor)

The Languages, Literatures, and Cultures of the Spanish-Speaking World (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2017-18/undergraduate/degree-programs/spanish-language-literature>) (Major and Minor)

In addition to the University, campus, and college requirements, listed on the College Requirements tab, students must fulfill the below requirements specific to their major program.

General Guidelines

1. All courses taken to fulfill the major requirements below must be taken for graded credit.
2. No more than one upper division course may be used to simultaneously fulfill requirements for a student's major and minor programs, with the exception of minors offered outside of the College of Letters & Science.
3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained in both upper and lower division courses used to fulfill the major requirements.

For information regarding residence requirements and unit requirements, please see the College Requirements tab.

Lower Division Prerequisites

SPANISH 1	Elementary Spanish (or equivalent)	5
SPANISH 2	Elementary Spanish (or equivalent)	5
SPANISH 3	Intermediate Spanish (or equivalent)	5
SPANISH 4	Intermediate Spanish (or equivalent)	5
SPANISH 25	Reading and Analysis of Literary Texts	3

Upper Division Requirements

Students are required to fulfill the requirements below.

SPANISH 100	Introduction to Hispanic Linguistics	4
SPANISH 161	Spanish Phonetics and Phonology	4
SPANISH 162	Spanish Morphology and Syntax	4
SPANISH 163	Sociolinguistic and Psycholinguistic Approaches to Spanish Bilingualism	4
SPANISH 164	Spanish Dialectology and Sociolinguistic Variation	4
One elective in Hispanic Linguistics
One elective in Linguistics
One elective in any upper division Spanish, Portuguese, or Catalan topic

Students who have a strong interest in an area of study outside their major often decide to complete a minor program. These programs have set requirements and are noted officially on the transcript in the memoranda section, but they are not noted on diplomas.

General Guidelines

1. All courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements below must be taken for graded credit.
2. A minimum of three of the upper division courses taken to fulfill the minor requirements must be completed at UC Berkeley.
3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 is required for courses used to fulfill the minor requirements.
4. Courses used to fulfill the minor requirements may be applied toward the Seven-Course Breadth requirement, for Letters & Science students.
5. No more than one upper division course may be used to simultaneously fulfill requirements for a student's major and minor programs.
6. All minor requirements must be completed prior to the last day of finals during the semester in which the student plans to graduate. Students who cannot finish all courses required for the minor by that time should see a College of Letters & Science adviser.
7. All minor requirements must be completed within the unit ceiling. (For further information regarding the unit ceiling, please see the College Requirements tab.)

SPANISH 101	Spanish Pronunciation and Accents in Native and Non-Native Speakers
SPANISH 161	Spanish Phonetics and Phonology
SPANISH 162	Spanish Morphology and Syntax
SPANISH 163	Sociolinguistic and Psycholinguistic Approaches to Spanish Bilingualism
SPANISH 164	Spanish Dialectology and Sociolinguistic Variation
SPANISH 165	Spanish in the U.S. and in Contact with Other Languages
SPANISH 166	Foreign Language Acquisition and Pedagogy for Spanish Language Instruction
SPANISH 179	Advanced Course in Hispanic Linguistics

Undergraduate students in the College of Letters & Science must fulfill the following requirements in addition to those required by their major program.

For detailed lists of courses that fulfill college requirements, please review the College of Letters & Sciences (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2017-18/undergraduate/colleges-schools/letters-science>) page in this Guide.

Entry Level Writing (<http://writing.berkeley.edu/node/78>)

All students who will enter the University of California as freshmen must demonstrate their command of the English language by fulfilling the Entry Level Writing requirement. Fulfillment of this requirement is also a prerequisite to enrollment in all reading and composition courses at UC Berkeley.

American History and American Institutions (<http://guide.berkeley.edu/archive/2017-18/undergraduate/colleges-schools/letters-science/american-history-institutions-requirement>)

The American History and Institutions requirements are based on the principle that a US resident graduated from an American university, should have an understanding of the history and governmental institutions of the United States.

American Cultures (<http://americancultures.berkeley.edu/students/courses>)

American Cultures is the one requirement that all undergraduate students at Cal need to take and pass in order to graduate. The requirement offers an exciting intellectual environment centered on the study of race, ethnicity and culture of the United States. AC courses offer students opportunities to be part of research-led, highly accomplished teaching environments, grappling with the complexity of American Culture.

Quantitative Reasoning

The Quantitative Reasoning requirement is designed to ensure that students graduate with basic understanding and competency in math, statistics, or computer science. The requirement may be satisfied by exam or by taking an approved course.

Foreign Language

The Foreign Language requirement may be satisfied by demonstrating proficiency in reading comprehension, writing, and conversation in a foreign language equivalent to the second semester college level, either by passing an exam or by completing approved course work.

Reading and Composition

In order to provide a solid foundation in reading, writing, and critical thinking the College requires two semesters of lower division work in composition in sequence. Students must complete a first-level reading and composition course by the end of their second semester and a second-level course by the end of their fourth semester.

Breadth Requirements

The undergraduate breadth requirements provide Berkeley students with a rich and varied educational experience outside of their major program. As the foundation of a liberal arts education, breadth courses give students a view into the intellectual life of the University while introducing them to a multitude of perspectives and approaches to research and scholarship. Engaging students in new disciplines and with peers from other majors, the breadth experience strengthens interdisciplinary connections and context that prepares Berkeley graduates to understand and solve the complex issues of their day.

Unit Requirements

- 120 total units, including at least 60 L&S units
- Of the 120 units, 36 must be upper division units
- Of the 36 upper division units, 6 must be taken in courses offered outside your major department

Residence Requirements

For units to be considered in "residence," you must be registered in courses on the Berkeley campus as a student in the College of Letters & Science. Most students automatically fulfill the residence requirement by attending classes here for four years. In general, there is no need to be concerned about this requirement, unless you go abroad for a semester or year or want to take courses at another institution or through UC Extension during your senior year. In these cases, you should make an appointment to meet an adviser to determine how you can meet the Senior Residence Requirement.

Note: Courses taken through UC Extension do not count toward residence.

Senior Residence Requirement

After you become a senior (with 90 semester units earned toward your BA degree), you must complete at least 24 of the remaining 30 units in residence in at least two semesters. To count as residence, a semester must consist of at least 6 passed units. Intercampus Visitor, EAP, and UC Berkeley-Washington Program (UCDC) units are excluded.

You may use a Berkeley Summer Session to satisfy one semester of the Senior Residence requirement, provided that you successfully complete 6 units of course work in the Summer Session and that you have been enrolled previously in the college.

Modified Senior Residence Requirement

Participants in the UC Education Abroad Program (EAP) or the UC Berkeley Washington Program (UCDC) may meet a Modified Senior Residence requirement by completing 24 (excluding EAP) of their final 60 semester units in residence. At least 12 of these 24 units must be completed after you have completed 90 units.

Upper Division Residence Requirement

You must complete in residence a minimum of 18 units of upper division courses (excluding EAP units), 12 of which must satisfy the requirements for your major.

Below is one sample plan of study for students in this major. Students are encouraged to plan their course of study with their adviser, based on their interests and career goals.

SPANISH 100	Introduction to Hispanic Linguistics	4
SPANISH 161	Spanish Phonetics and Phonology	4
SPANISH 162	Spanish Morphology and Syntax	4
SPANISH 163	Sociolinguistic and Psycholinguistic Approaches to Spanish Bilingualism	4
SPANISH 164	Spanish Dialectology and Sociolinguistic Variation	4
SPANISH 165	Spanish in the U.S. and in Contact with Other Languages	4
LINGUIS 100	Introduction to Linguistic Science	4

Learning Goals for the Major

1. Attain solid (though not necessarily flawless) proficiency in reading, writing, understanding, and speaking Spanish and/or Portuguese.
2. Recognize a variety of genres and modes of writing (fiction, poetry, theater, and essay).
3. Become conversant in the vocabulary associated with literary analysis in Spanish and/or Portuguese.
4. Be able to articulate specific connections between literary texts and the historical and cultural contexts in which they were produced.
5. Gain a critical awareness of distinctions and continuities among the literatures of the Iberian Peninsula and Latin America across national and regional boundaries and historical periods.
6. Acquire the analytical resources of diverse literary approaches and theories.

Skills

1. Demonstrate the ability to interpret and analyze texts written in Spanish and/or Portuguese, depending upon the major option.
2. Develop critical approaches for the analysis of texts from a range of historical periods and regions of Latin America and the Iberian peninsula.
3. Distinguish among dialects and usages typical of diverse regions, social contexts, and historical periods in Spain and/or Portugal, and the Americas, including usages of heritage speakers (Option D).
4. Formulate well-organized, well-supported arguments both orally and in written stylistically effective Spanish and/or Portuguese.
5. Write essays in standard academic Spanish and/or Portuguese, using appropriate vocabulary to discuss examples from specific texts.
6. Be able to distinguish among the available print and online sources and choose those that are most reliable as support for arguments in class discussion and essays.
7. Practice responsible citation of sources in essays.

Study Abroad

There are several options for studying abroad in a Spanish speaking country with program options that are suitable for students who have no Spanish language background as well as opportunities for those who are fully fluent. The UC Education Abroad Program (UCEAP) offers summer, semester and classic full academic year immersion programs. Students with existing language ability may pursue their major studies at some of the most prestigious institutions in Spain and Latin America.

Spanish majors must complete 20 units of upper division coursework within the department here at Berkeley and can transfer in the remaining approved courses from abroad.

The UCEAP office on campus is in 160 Stephens Hall. More information can be found on their website (<http://eap.ucop.edu>).

Prizes and Awards

The John K. Walsh Undergraduate $500 Scholarship is awarded to Spanish and Portuguese majors to recognize academic achievement and alleviate the financial burden of education for outstanding undergraduate majors.

Cervantes Prize: This prize is for excellence in undergraduate literary studies in Spanish.

PORTUG 27 Introduction to Portugal, Brazil, and other Portuguese-Speaking Cultures (in English) 3 Units

Offered through: Spanish and Portuguese

Terms offered: Fall 2018, Spring 2018, Fall 2017

This course offers an overview of contemporary Portuguese-Speaking Cultures and Literatures. The time frame covered is from the sixties--years of rupture and experimentalism in artistic and cultural production—to the present. Students will study the concrete poetry of the Portuguese author Ana Hatherly, the visual (“Concrete”) poems of the Brazilian author Haroldo de Campos, and the drawings of the Swiss-Brazilian artist Maria Schendel. The course content will include the multi-layered music of the Angolan duet Ouro Negro and the political essays of Cape Verdean academic Amílcar Cabral. Themes such as colonization, decolonization, freedom, will be among the larger, decidedly compelling group of subjects on which the course will touch.

SPANISH 101 Spanish Pronunciation and Accents in Native and Non-Native Speakers 4 Units

Offered through: Spanish and Portuguese

Terms offered: Prior to 2007

Taught in Spanish, Span 101 serves as an introduction to the Spanish sound system through an exploration of the complexities of native-like Spanish pronunciation and perceptions of native and non-native accent. Designed for both native and non-native speakers of Spanish as well as students without formal coursework in (Hispanic) Linguistics, this course centers on the acoustic nuances that distinguish standard Spanish pronunciation from non-standard and non-native pronunciations. Emphasis will be placed on comparisons between the Spanish and English sound systems, and the acquisition of a native-like accent will be addressed from both theoretical and practical standpoints.
