

Turkish

Minor

The Turkish minor introduces students to the people, language, culture, and history of the Turkish-speaking world. The minor develops a student's command of reading, writing, speaking, and comprehension in Turkish language and may complement the student's intended major study.

Students minoring in Turkish choose one of two options. Option A is open to students with little or no background in the language. Option B is for students who have completed the equivalent of two years of university-level coursework in the language. For specific information regarding the requirements for each option, please see the Minor Requirements tab on this page.

Declaring the Minor

Students may petition to add the Turkish minor as soon as they begin their study of Turkish. Please submit the Petition to Complete the Minor (<https://ls.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/advcompletionofnminor.pdf>) form to the undergraduate student adviser.

The minor program requires five upper-division courses in Turkish literature and culture. Students may overlap one course from their major in order to complete the Turkish minor requirements.

General Guidelines

1. All courses taken to fulfill major requirements must be taken for a letter grade and be at least 3 units.
2. Students pursuing a double major may overlap two courses to meet both major requirements. Students can also overlap one course to fulfill major and minor requirements.
3. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 must be maintained in both upper and lower division courses used to fulfill the major requirements. For information regarding residency requirements and unit requirements, please see the College Requirements tab.

4. With prior consent of the major adviser, students may take courses across various disciplines to fulfill major requirements.

Minor Requirements

Open to students with no background in the language.
