Satisfying Foreign Language with a Berkeley Course

There are three options for satisfying Foreign Language at Berkeley:

- (1) Completion of second semester or higher of foreign language instruction with a C– or higher. Review list of approved foreign language instruction courses (https://lsadvising.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/fl_course_list_09_20_23.pdf).

- (2) Completion of a pre-approved breadth course that is taught in a language other than English and requires an advanced language instruction course as a prerequisite.

- (3) Proficiency exam issued by a UC faculty.

For this option, students may use the course to fulfill Foreign Language and one of the approved Seven-Course Breadth (<https://lsadvising.berkeley.edu/seven-course-breadth/>) areas, provided the course is completed with a letter grade of C– or higher. (https://lsadvising.berkeley.edu/sites/default/files/fl_breadth_08_02_2019_courses_1.pdf)

Note: Not all language departments/faculty administer proficiency exams. Check with the department for your language of interest to confirm that this option is available. The faculty administering the exam must issue the results on UC departmental letterhead, and confirm proficiency (i.e. C– or higher) in reading, writing, speaking and listening at a level equivalent to what the student would have otherwise achieved by completion of instruction through the second semester (or third quarter) of instruction in a language other than English. After the college confirms the results, they are shared with the Central Evaluation Unit, which updates students' Academic Progress Reports (APR) to reflect satisfaction of the requirement. APRs will be updated in mid-November for results received in Fall, and in mid-April for results received in Spring.

Satisfying Foreign Language with a Transfer Course

All transfer courses pursued for Foreign Language must be completed with a C– or higher.

- Students admitted with IGETC Certification or UC Reciprocity have satisfied Foreign Language. No additional course work is required.
- Students can complete a pre-approved foreign language course at a California Community College. Pre-approved courses can be found on ASSIST (<http://www.assist.org/web-assist/welcome.html>). Refer to the L&S Transfer Credit page (<https://lsadvising.berkeley.edu/progress-planning/transfer-credit/>) for instructions on how to take transfer credit as an L&S student before enrolling at a California Community College.
- Successful completion of transferable courses from other higher education institutions (i.e. 2-year or 4-year campus in the U.S. or non-UCEAP courses from abroad) may also be considered. Course descriptions and syllabi will be required to make a determination. For more information on pursuing transfer courses for Foreign Language at another higher education institution, review L&S's Transfer Credit: Other Higher Education Institutions (<https://lsadvising.berkeley.edu/>)
