

Teaching English to Multilingual Students

Are you interested in teaching English to multilingual students abroad or in the USA? Or, maybe you just want to learn more about teaching and learning English? College Writing Programs and Education have teamed up to offer a certificate that can be earned in one summer. You can take all the courses in one summer, or spread them out over two or more summers. Students will be offered a certificate upon successful completion of all five courses. Even if you aren't pursuing a certificate, you are welcome to join any of these classes individually if you are interested. Registration is available through the Summer Sessions website (<http://summer.berkeley.edu/apply/>).

Please direct questions about this certificate program to the Director of College Writing Programs (<https://writing.berkeley.edu/people/maggie-sokolik/>).

Educating for the 21st Century: Teaching English to Multilingual Students

Students should contact College Writing Programs at collegewriting@berkeley.edu or call 510-642-9491 for more information.

Requirements

The online Minor, "Educating for the 21st Century: Teaching English to Multilingual Students," consists of a series of five courses which can be taken in one summer term or spread out over two or more summers.

Visiting students will be offered a certificate upon the successful completion of all five courses. You can register through Summer Sessions (<http://summer.berkeley.edu/apply/>).

Education

EDUC W140A	The Art of Making Meaning: Educational Perspectives on Literacy and Learning in a Global World	4
EDUC 142	Education in a Global World	3
EDUC W144	Practicum in Education	1-3

College Writing Programs

COLWRIT 121	Issues in Teaching English Internationally	3
COLWRIT 142	Grammar for English Language Instructors	3
COLWRIT 143	Foundations of English Language Education	3
COLWRIT 144	Teaching English as a Second Language: Practicum	3
COLWRIT 145	Creating Materials for English Language Education	3
COLWRIT 146	Teaching Online in a Global Context	3